

What happens if there is a no vote?

The plan will be binned.

We will have declared to the developers and LCC that we are not bothered about new developments in Garforth.

We will not have the ability to influence the type, design, location and mix of new development, within the bounds of existing district level planning policies.

Residents will be discouraged from stepping forward to help their community.